62. Complaints against registered practitioners. –

- 1) The Council may suo- motu or on any complaint made to it in that behalf hold an inquiry as respects the misconduct of any registered practitioner for the purposes of section 22 of the Act.
- 2) Any complaint or information received in the office of the Council about the misconduct of any registered practitioner shall be submitted by the Registrar to the president.

- 3) No complaint shall be entertained unless it is in writing addressed to the Council and signed by the person making it, and shall state the grounds of complaint, and shall be accompanied by declarations as to the facts of the case. All anonymous complaints may be disregarded.
- 4) Every declaration shall state the description and true place of abode of the declarant, and where a fact stated in a declaration is not within his personal knowledge, the source of the information, and grounds for the belief of the declarant in its truth shall be accurately and fully stated. Any declaration or part thereof which is made in contravention of this rule shall not be accepted as evidence.
- 5) If the President has reason to believe that a complaint is pseudonymous, he may call upon the complainant to furnish further particulars, for ascertaining if the complaint is genuine.

63. Procedure for submission of complaint to executive Committee. –

- 1) Subject to the provisions of rule 62, the President may, on going through the complaint and all papers submitted by the complainant, instruct the Registrar to ask the practitioner by means of a registered letter for any explanation he may have to offer.
- 2) All the documents pertaining to the complaint including any explanation forwarded by the registered practitioner shall then be referred to the Executive Committee along with the remarks of the president, if any.

64. Power of Executive Committee to refer complaint to Council. –

- 1) The Executive Committee shall consider the complaint, and may cause further investigation to be made and may take such legal advice by consulting any legal practitioner as it may deem fit.
- 2) The Committee shall, after consideration of the case, record its opinion and refer it to the council for decision.

65. Action to be taken by Council when case is referred to it. – When a case is referred to it under sub- rule (2) of rule 64, the Council may-

- a) direct the Registrar to call for such additional information as it may desire to have about the points arising in the case;
- b) direct the Registrar to file the papers if in its opinion no prima facie case is made out against the medical practitioner;
- c) exonerate the medical practitioner of the charges leveled against him if the explanation offered by him is considered satisfactory by the Council; or
- d) direct an inquiry to be held in accordance with rules 66 to 73.

66. Cases in which Council to hold inquiry, power of Council to appoint assessor. –

- 1) In all cases in which an inquiry for purposes of clause (b) of subsection (1) of section 22 is necessary an inquiry shall be held by the council in accordance with the procedure prescribed in rule 67 to 73; and for that purpose the Council may appoint an assessor to advise it as provided in sub-section (8) of section 22 of the Act;

Provided that, such inquiry shall not be necessary in cases where a registered practitioner has been convicted for misconduct within the meaning of clauses (i) and (ii) of the Explanation to sub-section (1) of section 22. In such cases, the president shall obtain and place before the Council a copy of the Court's Judgment and the Council shall thereupon decide upon the penalty to be imposed under rule 73 read with section 22 of the Act.

- 2) An Assessor appointed shall be paid a remuneration of rupees three hundred per day for attendance at an inquiry.

67. Notice of charges on Registered Practitioner. –

- 1) The President shall cause to be served on the registered practitioner a notice in Form 18 subject to such variation as the circumstances of the case may require. Such notice shall specify the nature and particulars of the charge and shall inform him, of the day in which the Council intended to deal with the case, and shall call upon the practitioner to put in his written statement of his defense within a period of not less than fifteen days or such other period not exceeding sixty days as may be permitted by the Council, and to attend before the Council on such day. The notice shall be sent three weeks before the date of inquiry. Such charge shall be drawn clearly and precisely.
- 2) The notice shall be accompanied by a statement of allegations on which each charge is based. The relevant allegations as to facts, the inferences which they lead to, and the circumstances supporting such inferences shall be clearly mentioned along with any other circumstances proposed to be considered while passing orders on the case.
- 3) Copies of the relevant documents, if any (including any document given or sent to the Council by or on behalf of the other party which such other party shall be entitled on proper proof to use at the hearing as evidence in support of or in answer to the charge specified in the notice of inquiry) shall also be supplied to the registered practitioner alongwith the notice and statement of allegations.
- 4) Copies of any other documents or statements required by such practitioner to prepare his defence may also be supplied to him on request or he may be allowed to take copies.

68. Reply to notice. – The registered practitioner shall, within the time specified in the notice or such extended period as is permitted by the President, put in written statement of his defense, and state whether he desires to be heard in person by the Council.

69. Council and complainant if any, to be supplied with copies of all documents etc. –

- 1) Copies of all material documents including the written statement of defence, if any, which is placed before the Council as evidence in regard to the case shall be supplied to all members of the Council before the hearing of the case commences.
- 2) The complainant may, on application in writing, obtain copies of any explanation, statement or other documents put forth in the defence by the registered practitioner.

70. Legal assistance at inquiry. – At the hearing of the case by the Council, the Council may be represented by any legal practitioner and the complainant, if any, and the practitioner may also be represented or assisted by their legal practitioner;

Provided that, where any advice is tendered to the Council by an assessor appointed under section 22 on any question of law, as to evidence, procedure or any other matter such advice shall be subject to the provisions of section 22 Of the Act.

71. Procedure of inquiry. –

- 1) Where a complainant appears personally or by a legal practitioner, the following procedure shall be followed, namely-
 - a) The Registrar will read to the Council the notice of enquiry addressed to the practitioner.
 - b) The complainant will then be invited to state his case by himself or his legal practitioner and to produce his evidence in support of it. At the conclusion of the evidence of the complainant, his case will be closed.
 - c) The practitioner will then be invited to state his case by himself or by his legal practitioner and to produce his evidence in support of it. He may address the Council either before or at the conclusion of his evidence, but only once.
 - d) At the conclusion of the practitioner's case, the Council shall, if the practitioner has produced evidence, hear the complainant in reply on the case generally, but will hear no further evidence except in any special case in which the Council may think it right to receive such further evidence. If the practitioner produces no evidence, the complainant will not be heard in reply except by special leave of the Council.
 - e) Where a witness is produced by any party before the Council will be first examined by the party producing him, and be cross examined by the adverse party, and then re-examined by the party producing him. The Council reserves to itself the right to decline to admit in evidence any declaration where the declarant is not present or declines to submit to cross examination.
 - f) The president and the assessor, if any, appointed under section 22 may put questions to the complainant and registered practitioner including any of their witnesses; and members of the Council, through the President, may likewise put questions to them.
- 2) Where there is no complainant or no complainant appears, the following procedure shall be followed namely.
 - a) The Registrar shall read to the Council the notice of inquiry addressed to the practitioner, and will state the facts of the case and produce before the Council the evidence by which it is supported.
 - b) The practitioner shall then be invited to state his case by himself or by his legal practitioner and to produce his evidence in support of it. He may address the Council either before or at the conclusion of his evidence, but only once.
 - c) The legal practitioners of the Council, if any, may be heard in reply if the Council so desires,

72. Record of proceedings at inquiries. – The President shall keep a record of proceedings at the inquiry held under rule 71 including the evidence of each witness.

73. Power of Council to give further opportunity to practitioner to make statement. – Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 71, after completion of the inquiry the registered practitioner shall be given a further opportunity of making any oral or written statement. Copies of such evidence as are required by the registered practitioner for making such statement shall be supplied to him.

74. Decision of Council and Implementation. – As soon as the hearing of the case is over and the registered practitioner has made his oral or written statement, if any, the Council shall deliberate thereon in private and at the conclusion of the deliberation, the president shall pronounce its decision immediately thereafter or at any time thereafter in terms; of clause (a) or (b) of sub-section (1) of section 22; and thereupon the President shall direct the Registrar to inform the parties of the decision of the Council by a registered Cellar and to implement the decision.

75. Re-entry of name of practitioner in register. –

- 1) Every application for re-entry of name in the register shall be in Form 19 and specify the grounds on which the application is made. The application shall be accompanied by the applicant's certificate of degree, diploma or licence and also by a certificate from any Gazetted Officer of the State Government or from a Justice of the peace as to his good character since the removal of his name from the register.
- 2) The President shall cause such inquiries to be made as he deems fit in respect of the application and place it before the Council at its next meeting for decision.
- 3) The decision of the Council shall be communicated to the applicant and if the Council agrees to re-enter the name in the register a fee of fifty rupees be paid by the practitioner before his name is re-entered in the register by the Registrar.

Chapter VII

Appeals

76. Appeal. –

- 1) Every appeal by a person aggrieved by any decision of the Registrar shall be addressed to the President, shall state the grounds for the appeal and shall be accompanied by all relevant documents in original which shall be returned along with the decision communicated under sub-rule (3).
- 2) The President may call for any additional particulars that may be required after going through the appeal, and the original papers on which the Registrar has given his decision.
- 3) The appeal shall be placed before the next ordinary meeting of the Council. The Council shall after giving a hearing to the appellant and the Registrar, take a decision which shall be communicated to the appellant by registered post.

SCHEDULE 'A'

(Vide rule 84 of the Maharashtra Medical Council Rules, 1967)
Rules for Provident Fund of The Maharashtra Medical Council

1. Definition. – In these rules, unless there is anything repugnant to the subject or context,

(a) "family" means

i) in the case of a male subscriber the wife and children of a subscriber and the widow and children of a deceased son of the subscriber;

Provided that, if a subscriber proves that his wife has been judicially separated from him or has ceased under the customary law of the community to which she belongs to be entitled to maintenance, she shall henceforth be deemed to be no longer a member of the subscriber's family in matters to which these rules relate, unless the subscriber subsequently indicates by express notification in writing to the Registrar that she shall continue to be regarded as a member of his family;

ii) in the case of a female subscriber, the husband and children of the subscriber, and the widow and children of a deceased son of the subscriber:

Provided that, if a subscriber by notification in writing to the Registrar, expresses her desire to exclude her husband from her family, the husband shall henceforth be deemed to be no longer a member of the subscriber's family in matter to which these rules relate, unless the subscriber subsequently cancels formally in writing her notification excluding him.

Explanation 1.- "Children" means legitimate children.

Explanation 2.- An adopted child shall be considered to be a child, when the Registrar or if any doubt arises in the mind of the Registrar, the Solicitor to the Government of Maharashtra, is satisfied that under the personal law of the subscriber, adoption is legally recognized as conferring the status of a natural child, but in this case only;

- (b) "Fund" or "Provident Fund" means the Provident Fund established and maintained under these rules;
- (c) "Pay" means pay, substantive and officiating, special pay leave salary and dearness pay

Explanation. — For the purpose of calculating the pay of an employee of the Council at any time on or after the 1st day of April 1970, the dearness pay shall be deemed always to have formed part of his pay.

- (d) "Year" means financial year.

2. Application. – These rules shall apply to the employees of the Council for whom subscription to the provident fund is compulsory under sub-rule (3) of rule 84 of the Maharashtra Medical Council Rules, 1967.

3. Management. – The Fund shall be administered by the Registrar under the direction of the Council in accordance with these rules.

4. Constitution of Fund. –

(1) The fund shall be made up of —

- a) subscriptions,
- b) contributions, and
- c) interest on subscriptions and contributions.

(2) The Council shall, as soon as practicable and in any case at least every six months, invest in the name of the Council the corpus and all monies of the Fund through the Reserve Bank of India in Government securities within the meaning of clause (a) of section 2 of the Indian Securities Act, 1920, or in securities of the nature specified in clauses (c) and (d) of section 20 of the Indian Trusts Act, 1882:

Provided that monies which are required to be applied immediately or within twelve months may be deposited with the State Bank of India or any other Bank approved by the State Bank of India or any other Bank approved by the State Government in this behalf.

5. Rate of subscription and Manner of Recovery.

(1) The amount of subscription shall be fixed by the subscriber himself, subject to the following conditions, that is to say,-

- a) It shall be expressed in whole rupees; and
- b) It may be any sum expressed in whole rupees not being less than 8 per cent of his pay and not more than 20 per cent thereof.

(2) The subscriber shall intimate to the Registrar the fixation of the amount of his subscription in writing when he is first required to join the Provident Fund, and thereafter at least one month before the commencement of each year.

- (3) The amount of subscription so fixed shall remain unchanged throughout the year.
- (4) Subscription as fixed by the subscriber under sub-rule (2) shall be deducted every month from his pay and credited to his account. It shall be considered as paid to the fund on the first day of the month following that in respect of which the pay is due.

6. Contributions. – The Council's contribution shall be equal to 8 per cent of the subscriber's pay during the year, and shall be made yearly on 31st March except in the case of death or retirement of a subscriber when the Council's contribution to that subscriber's account shall be calculated to date. The amount of contribution payable by the Council shall be rounded off to the nearest whole rupee (i.e. fifty paise and above shall be treated as one rupee, and amounts less than fifty paise shall be ignored).

7. Gratuity. – If an employee of the Council retires or resigns or dies while in service, the Council shall pay to such employee by way of gratuity an amount equal to half month's pay for each completed year of service, the maximum amount to be so paid being not more than Twenty months pay which ever is less:

Provided that, the amount shall not be so paid unless the employee has put in at least five years continuous service with the Council.

Explanation - For purposes of this rule, the pay of the employee shall be the average pay drawn by him during the three years immediately preceding the date of his retirement from service, any periods of leave on reduced pay or leave without pay being ignored.

8. Rate of Interest. –

- (1) Interest, at the same rate as is fixed by the Government of Maharashtra from time to time for a subscriber to the General Provident Fund, shall be allowed by the Council or, the amount at the credit of a subscriber, and shall be credited annually on the 31st March or when any subscriber quits service or dies while in service, on the date of his quitting service, or death, as the case may be.
- (2) If the interest payable under this rule exceeds the interest earned by the Council on the investments of the Provident Fund, such excess shall be provided by the Council from other funds at its disposal and shall not be charged to the State Government.

9. Accounts. –

- 1) A separate account shall be kept for each subscriber showing the amount of his own personal subscriptions, with the interest thereon as it accrues and his share of the yearly contribution of the Council with interest thereon and the amount of advances outstanding, if any. The account shall be maintained in whole rupees, fractions of a rupee equal to or exceeding fifty paise being counted as one rupee and fractions of a rupee less than fifty paise being ignored. A copy of his account for the previous year shall be furnished to each subscriber not later than 31st July in each year.
- 2) The Council shall deposit each year in the Fund an amount to be fixed with reference to the charges to be met by the Council in payment of liability to the Fund
- 3) The following books of account shall be maintained:-

- a) Provident Fund Ledger;
- b) Register of Subscriber;
- c) Provident Fund Cash Book;
- d) Register of Advances and Recoveries; and
- e) Investment Register.

10. Circumstances in which accumulation are payable. – The total sum at the credit of a subscriber shall be payable to him on the termination of his service subject to the right of the Council to deduct therefrom any sum due to themselves, provided that, the total sum deducted shall not exceed the total of their contribution, credited to his account, and provided that —

- a) a subscriber who resigns his post within five years after his admission to the Fund will receive his own subscriptions and his share in the complete accrued interest of the Fund, and with the sanction of the Council also the contribution made to his account by the Council.
- b) if a subscriber is permanently disabled or invalidated he will ordinarily receive his subscriptions, the Council's contributions in his behalf, and his share in the whole of the accrued interest at whatever stage of his service, he is disabled or invalidated.
- c) if a subscriber is dismissed or removed from service on grounds of gross misconduct or fraud, he shall not be entitled to any contribution by the Council. Such a subscriber will receive his own subscriptions and his share in the complete accrued interest of the Fund, provided that if the order of dismissal is subsequently cancelled, the amount of the Council's contribution to his account shall, on his reinstatement in the service, be replaced at his credit in the Fund.

11. Payments. – When the amount standing to the credit of a subscriber in the Fund or the balances thereof after any deduction under rule 10 becomes payable, it shall be the duty of the Registrar to make payment as provided in section 4 of the Provident Fund Act, 1925.

12. Advances. –

- 1) The President in the case of the Registrar, and the Registrar, in the case of other staff, may at their discretion, grant advances to subscribers out of the fund towards any of the following purposes:-
 - a) to pay expenses incurred in connection with the illness of a subscriber or a member of his family;
 - b) to pay expenses in connection with marriages or other ceremonies which by the religion of the subscriber it is incumbent upon him to perform and in connection with which it is obligatory that expenditure should be incurred.
- 2) The advance shall not ordinarily exceed three month's pay and shall in no case exceed the amount of the subscriber's subscriptions including accrued interest.
- 3) When an advance has already been granted to a subscriber, no subsequent advance shall be granted to him, except for very special reasons to be recorded in writing, until at least three calendar months have elapsed since the complete repayment of the advance taken.

- 4) The amount of any advance to a subscriber under this rule shall be debited to a separate account of such subscriber as against his own contributions to the Fund and will operate to reduce protanto the amount standing to his credit in the fund, from time to time, until the advance shall be recovered, the recoveries being credited to the said account as and when made. No interest will be credited to the account of any subscriber to whom an advance has been made of any amount for the time being debited to his account as representing an outstanding advance.
- 5) An advance shall be recovered from the monthly pay of the subscriber in such number of equal monthly installments, not being more than 36 in any case, as the sanctioning authority at the time of sanctioning the advance may direct. The recovery shall commence on the first occasion after the advance is made, when the subscriber draws pay or leave salary on full pay for a whole month and shall be in addition to the usual subscription.

Note: A subscriber may, however, at his option make repayment in less than the number of installments fixed as hereinabove provided. No installments will be recovered from the salary of any subscriber who is on leave, unless such leave is leave on full pay. When two or more advances are made, each advance should be treated separately and the monthly deduction of not less than 1/24th of each advance shall be made until the advance is cleared.

- 6) The installments will be paid by compulsory deductions from substantive pay and will be in addition to, the usual subscriptions.
- 7) When an advance is repayable in twelve installments an additional installment representing interest and equivalent to 3 ½ per cent of the amount of the advance shall be paid in the month following that in which the last installment is paid. Similarly two additional installments representing interest, each equivalent to 3 ½ per cent of the total amount of the advance, shall be paid when the advance is repayable in more than 12 installments.

In calculating interest as above, a fraction of a rupee shall be taken at the next higher whole rupee if it exceeds fifty paise, and shall be ignored if it does not.

13. Withdrawal from Fund. –

- 1) Subject to the provisions of this rule, the Council may, at any time after completion of twenty five years of service of a subscriber or within five years before the date of his retirement on superannuation, whichever is earlier, sanction withdrawal by him from the amount standing to his credit in the Fund for meeting expenditure in connection with the marriage of the subscriber's son or daughter or any other female relation dependent on him.
- 2) In respect of the marriage of the subscriber's son or daughter or a female relation dependent on him, the sum withdrawn by the subscriber under sub-rule (1) shall, subject to sub-rule (3), not exceed-
 - a) three month's pay in the case of his son, and six month's pay in any other case, of the subscriber; or
 - b) the amount actually subscribed by him along with interest thereon standing to his credit; whichever is less.

- 3) In special cases, the maximum limit in clause (a) of sub-rule (2) may be relaxed by the Council but in no case shall the amount sanctioned exceed six months pay in the case of his son, and ten months' pay in any other case, of the subscriber.
- 4) If two or more marriages are to be celebrated simultaneously, the amount admissible in respect of each such marriage shall be determined as if the withdrawals are sanctioned separately, one after another.
- 5) In respect of the same marriage, the subscriber may either withdraw the money under sub-rule (1) of this rule or draw an advance under rule 12.
- 6) A subscriber, who has already drawn or may draw in future a refundable advance under rule 12, may convert at his discretion, by written request, the balance outstanding against it into a final withdrawal on his satisfying the conditions laid down in this rule.
- 7) Withdrawal by a subscriber from the amount standing to his credit in the fund shall be permitted not earlier than three months preceding the month in which the marriage actually takes place.
- 8) A subscriber shall furnish a certificate to the Council within the period of one month from the date of marriage, or if he is on leave within one month on return from leave, that the money has actually be utilised for the purpose for which it was withdrawn and if he fails to do so, the whole of the sum so withdrawn or so much thereof as has not been applied for the purpose for which it was withdrawn together with the interest thereon at the rate determined under rule 8, from the month of withdrawal shall be re-deposited into the fund forthwith by the subscriber.

14. Nomination. –

- 1) The Registrar shall, as soon as may be, require every subscriber to the Fund to make a nomination conferring the right to receive the amount that may stand to his credit in the fund in the event of his death before quitting service or retirement from the service of the Council.
- 2) Each subscriber who at the time of joining the Fund has a family shall fill in and sign the nomination in Form 'A' appended to these rules. A subscriber, who, at the time of joining the Fund, has no family, shall fill in and sign the nomination in Form '13' appended to these rules:

Provided that a nomination made in Form '13' shall be deemed to have been made in accordance with these rules only for so long as the subscriber has no family.
- 3) If the subscriber at any time acquires a family, he shall fill in and sign the nomination in Form 'A' and forward the same to the Registrar as provided hereinabove, and if he has under this rule nominated any person other than a member of his family, he shall cancel the previous nomination.
- 4) A subscriber may in his nomination distribute the amount that may stand to his credit in the Fund amongst his nominees at his own discretion.
- 5) A nomination may be cancelled by a subscriber and replaced by any nomination, which is permitted to be made under this rule.

15. Interpretation – The power of interpreting these rules and of deciding cases of dispute or doubt is vested in Government whose decision on all matters appertaining to and arising out of these rules or the disputes hereunder shall be final.
